Promoting Discernment and the Spiritual Exercises
Promoviendo Discernimiento y los Ejercicios Espirituales
Second Sunday of Lent • March 17th, 2019

From the Desk of the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

In these early days of our Lenten journey, we wonder what lies ahead and what God might be seeking to reveal to us in this time of renewal. How might God be calling us to something new?

I was excited to find the edges of something new in the first of the Universal Apostolic Preferences recently shared with the Society of Jesus and the Ignatian family. We are invited "To show the way to God through the Spiritual Exercises and discernment". At first glance, this might not seem like something new at St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish.

Through the years, many parishioners have traveled the Spiritual Exercises and come to deeper encounter with one another and with God. They go forth with discerning hearts, seeking places to accompany others and finding ways to be more attentive to God's dream for peace, reconciliation and justice in the world. The identity and mission of our parish has always been rooted and grounded in Ignatian spirituality. So, how might God be calling us to something new?

What struck me as new in the first Apostolic Preference was the urgent need to embrace the "diverse social contexts of today's world". The document proclaims: "We resolve to collaborate with the Church in experiencing secular society as a sign of the times that affords us the opportunity to renew our presence in the heart of human history". This feels to me like a welcome reframing of how we might choose to view the diversity of "secular society". The institution of the Church has often engaged in open confrontation with secular society, lamenting the growing numbers of those (often young adults) who might describe themselves as "unaffiliated" yet seeking a path to God. It might surprise you to learn that these seekers are seeking out the Spiritual Exercises in growing numbers, and coming to our parish hungering for a way to grapple with the questions and signs of our times.

Are we being called to move forward into new spaces of freedom and discernment that bring opportunity for renewal in our troubled times? It has been my experience over the last ten years that these "free spaces" exist on the margins where "churched" and "unchurched" come together to deepen their relationship with God. In these challenging times, where one can feel weary of scandal and obstacles to change in the Church, the Spiritual Exercises bring together companions who desire to listen to God's voice within and to learn the ways to discern God's presence in their lived experience. At the end of the Spiritual Exercises journey, retreatants are often surprised how their adventure on their personal pathway to God has led them to a desire for faith community. Their experience contributes to our wider understanding of what loving ecclesial life means.

Estimados Feligreses:

En estos primeros días de nuestro viaje cuaresmal, nos preguntamos qué está frente a nosotros y qué busca revelarnos Dios en este tiempo de renovación. ¿Cómo nos está llamando a algo nuevo?

Estaba emocionada al encontrar los bordes de algo nuevo en la primera de las Preferencias Apostólicas Universales, recientemente compartida en la Sociedad de Jesús y la Familia Ignaciana. Estamos invitados a “Mostrar el camino hacia Dios a través de los Ejercicios Espirituales y el discernimiento.” A primera vista, esto pareciera no ser nuevo en la parroquia de San Ignacio de Loyola.

A través de los años, muchos feligreses han transitado los Ejercicios Espirituales y llegan a un encuentro profundo con el prójimo y con Dios. Salen adelante con corazones que discernen, buscando espacios para acompañar a otros y encontrando formas de ser más atentos al sueño de Dios por la paz, la reconciliación y la justicia en el mundo. La identidad y la misión de nuestra parroquia ha estado siempre enraizada en la espiritualidad ignaciana. Por lo que, ¿cómo nos está llamando Dios a algo nuevo?

Lo que me impactó como nuevo en la Primera Preferencia Apostólica fue la necesidad urgente de adoptar los “diversos contextos sociales del mundo actual.” El documento proclama: “Estamos resueltos a colaborar con la Iglesia en experimentar la sociedad secular como un signo de los tiempos que nos da la oportunidad de renovar nuestra presencia en el corazón de la historia humana.” Me parece un replanteamiento acogedor de cómo debiéramos escoger ver la diversidad de “la sociedad secular.” La institución de la Iglesia se ha involucrado a menudo en una confrontación abierta con la sociedad secular, lamentándose del número creciente (a menudo de jóvenes adultos) que se describen a sí mismos como no afiliados, que, sin embargo, todavía buscan a Dios. Les sorprendería saber que ellos buscan, de forma creciente, los Ejercicios Espirituales y vienen a nuestra parroquia, hambrientos de una forma de aferrarse a las interrogantes y signos de nuestros tiempos.

¿Estamos llamados a movernos a nuevos espacios de libertad y discernimiento que traigan la oportunidad de renovación en nuestros tiempos turbulentos? A lo largo de estos años mi experiencia ha sido ver estos “espacios libres” donde lo “eclesial” y “no eclesial” se juntan para profundizar su relación con Dios.

En estos tiempos difíciles, donde se puede sentir el hastío del escándalo y las trabas para no cambiar en la Iglesia, los Ejercicios Espirituales juntan acompañantes que desean escuchar la voz de Dios en su interior y conocer las formas de discernir la presencia de Dios dentro de sus propias experiencias vitales. Al final del viaje por los Ejercicios Espirituales, los participantes parten con una mayor sensibilidad y un mayor sentido de comunidad. (Continúa en la página 4)

Liturgical Ministries

LITURGICAL MINISTERS NEEDED!
Sign Up Weekend: March 16th & 17th
Each Liturgy at Saint Ignatius Parish needs ministers to proclaim the Word, bake the Eucharistic bread, welcome one another, and serve the Eucharist. Over 80 ministers serve each weekend!

Please consider volunteering to serve as a:
- Eucharistic Minister
- Lector
- Eucharistic Bread Baker
- Mass Coordinator

Current ministers will be available at the back of the church after masses in the Upper Church to answer questions and sign up interested parishioners.

Pastoral Council
We are currently beginning the process of replacing two members whose terms will expire in May. If you would like to recommend yourself or someone whom you believe has the gifts and desire to join us in this essential work for our parish, please email that name or names to pastoralcouncil@bc.edu.

In the gathering place at the entrance to the Upper Church is a poster identifying current Pastoral Council Members. Any of us would be glad to speak with you on issues that impact us as we journey together at St. Ignatius. You may also arrange to speak with any one of us through our email address.

Spiritual Life

Join us for Film & Reflection
Saturday, March 23rd | 5 p.m.
Friary & Choir/Media Rooms
The movie Chef is a culinary comedy that serves us themes of family, friendship and the celebration of food for our discussion. A potluck community meal kicks off the evening with you as the chef. Bring your favorite savory or sweet dish to share, alongside our Lenten soups. To RSVP for the evening, go to the St. Ignatius Website at stignatiuschestnuthill.org. In the top menu bar, select "Parish Life" then scroll down to "Spiritual Life" and click on "Film & Reflection" to register. By phone, call the Parish Office at 617-552-6102.

CRS Rice Bowl 2019 | Second Week of Lent - Encounter Annet

Since her parents’ deaths 4 years ago, 16-year-old Annet has been caring for her three siblings: Gladys, 6, Irene, 8 and Emmanuel, 10. Ongoing violence in their home country, South Sudan, forced Annet to take her siblings and flee south to neighboring Uganda. Now they live in Bidi Bidi, one of the world’s largest refugee settlements. While Annet is happy to be away from the violence, life in Bidi Bidi is hard—especially for a young woman trying to raise her siblings. That’s why CRS is building houses for families like Annet’s. Annet was given her own plot of land to plant on so she will be able to continue providing for her siblings. “My hope is to raise my siblings,” she says. “And I know I can do it with the help of CRS.”

CRS Rice Bowl 2019 are on the Outreach table and in the Lannon Chapel.

Our Socks and Flip-Flops Drive for Boston Health Care for the Homeless Program
