Parishioners can request a Prayer Shawl for someone by contacting Carol O'Brien at sttoffice24@gmail.com or by calling 617-323-4410. Every prayer shawl is different and perfect. Donations of completed shawls may be dropped off in the parish office, Monday—Thursday 9:30 —12 Noon or when you come to Mass. Thank you, PHM. (Parish Health Ministry).. In your charity, please pray for Nora C.

The 2024 Catholic Appeal is drawing to an official close and St Theresa's Parish is at 75% of our goal. If you would like to help the Parish achieve our goal, you can make a contribution before the end of the year. If you contribute by check, please make it payable to Saint Theresa Parish and write 2024 Catholic Appeal in the memo line. We are deeply grateful to all those who have already contributed so generously.

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

All Christian families are called to be an example of love and forgiveness. This call from God is a challenge to all of us because we are not perfect, but we are destined for love. This Holy Family Sunday reminds us that the model of family love is the love that Christ gives us. Today's reading from Colossians reminds us "as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do."

Our society should be a symbol of love and forgiveness. God loved us all enough to send Jesus into our world. He came to save us. We do not always respond to this love the way we should. But we do have the example for what love is like. It is compassionate, kind, humble, gentle, and patient. Within our world, our city, and our family we have many differences, but we hold this in common: the ability to live in peace and the grace of God's forgiveness.

At Christmastime we celebrate the God's gift to us, Christ our Redeemer. We try to imitate that forgiveness as an individual, a family member and a member of the community. If the forgiving Christ dwells in each of us, we will bring His forgiveness to the world.

AL-ANON now meets in person every Wednesday night, 7:00-8:00 P.M. at Saint John Parish Center. New members always welcome! Please call the Parish Office for more information. 617-323-4410

Journey OF Faith

HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH

In Word & Deed

In the last year, there have been stories about families who have survived tragedy, accomplished great things, or completed incredible goals. The one common factor among them all is love. What brings them together, what keeps them together, and what makes them a family is the love they have for one another. Through difficulties and triumphs, in strength and in weakness, love brings out the best in everyone, making life and dreams a reality.

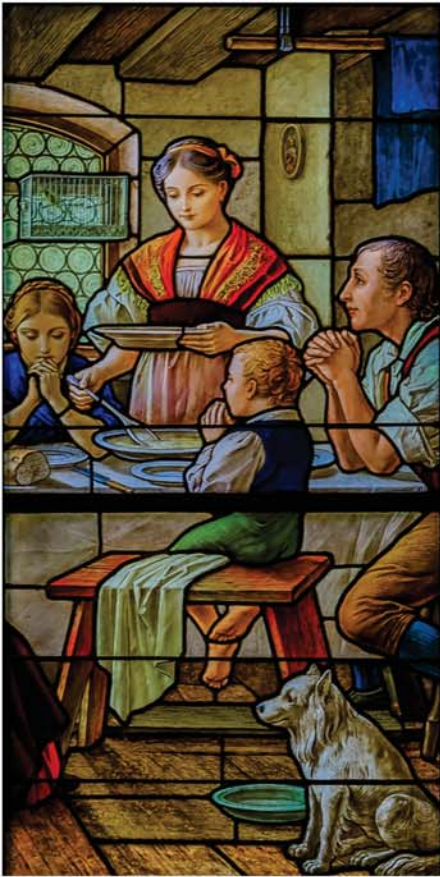

The Holy Family is a model of virtue and grace. In spite of some rocky moments and difficult circumstances, Joseph, Mary and Jesus persisted in their love for one another. We get glimpses of this in the Gospels, especially in the public ministry when Jesus shows His love and respect for Mary. These moments of affection and concern are the hallmarks of strong family ties.

Jesus was born in a humble stable, into a poor family. Simple shepherds were the first witnesses to this event. In this poverty heaven's glory was made manifest. The Church never tires of singing the glory of this night.

Catechism of the Catholic Church (no 525)

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

A parenting seminar at our parish featured a segment on faith development in children. Time and again, the speaker stressed the importance of the family in teaching children about the meaning and purpose of religious doctrine and practices. If children do not see it at home, they won't see it—or believe it—anywhere else. Religion is taught, but faith is caught.

We cannot overestimate how important a role the family plays in teaching the basics of faith. Children practice what they see. How many two year olds try to make the Sign of the Cross as the family prays before meals? It is comical at times, but a clear reminder that what a child sees and does in the home forms the basis of his or her own practice of faith.

Values, morals, and faith all begin at home, so that what the family teaches, the Church preaches and the child of God reaches.

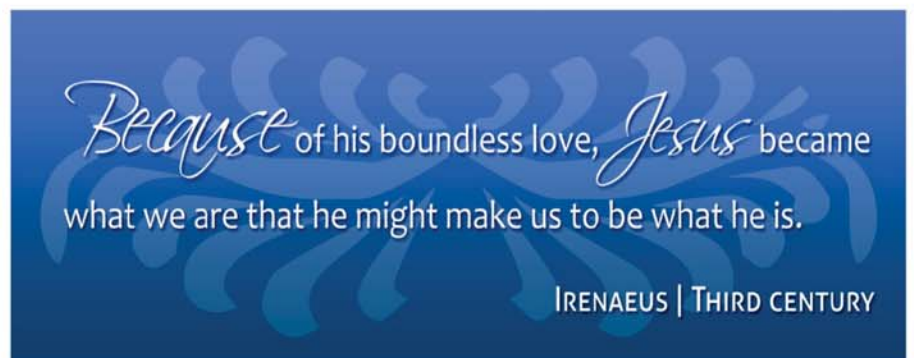

Make room for faith and time for its practice. In busy schedules, rushed evenings, and overscheduled weekends, we need the time and space to be quiet, to listen, to pray and to worship. Prayer, bible reading, traditional devotions, Mass, and discussions about spiritual and moral issues will make a big difference in the way the whole family sees, understands and practices faith.

~James Gaffney

Child of Bethlehem ~

house of bread;
 Man of Jerusalem –
 city of peace;
 you have loved us
 without limit or condition;
 in our greatness and in our misery, in our folly and in our virtue; may your hand be always upon us and may your heart be within us so that we too may become bread and peace
 for one another.

John Hammond, OSB

St. Paul describes the virtues that nurture the bonds of family life. Respect, forgiveness, humility, mercy and love form the core of our relationships with those we love and contribute to a better community.

Practice these virtues well. Teach them by example. The power of these gifts will make your family, your church and your community holy.
